

the SOCIETY FOR medieval and RENAISSANCE philosophy

newsletter

number 45, fall 2002

From the Editor: Thanks to everyone for bearing with me in our transition from the printed newsletter to our new electronic format. Printed copies will still be available for members who prefer to receive them, but I hope the new format with its many convenient features will continue to catch on. Right now, almost three-quarters of our members receive the electronic version through our website, saving the Society a considerable amount of money.*

Please remember to pay your 2003 dues promptly using the form on the last page of this newsletter. Perhaps one day we will be able to offer electronic payment as well, but for now you will need to continue sending your dues via U.S. mail to our treasurer, Jim Long, at the address indicated on the form.

Let me renew my appeal for news of upcoming conferences and publications. Please send your information to:

For the full APA program, click on: <http://www.apa.udel.edu/apa/publication/proceedings/v76n1/public/default.asp>

The Society continues to sponsor sessions at the Patristic, Medieval, and Renaissance Studies Conference (Villanova), at the Medieval Congress (Western Michigan), and the American Catholic Philosophical Association Annual Meeting, if possible, on a yearly basis. Early submissions of papers and/or panel suggestions are encouraged. Papers for these sessions are in addition to the invited papers at the APA Eastern meeting.

The Journal of Patristic, Medieval, and Renaissance Studies seeks submissions of conference papers (Kalamazoo or Leeds) from session proposals addressing the topic of Matter for its 2002/04 conference series. Categories of matter include: nonliving/inanimate matter (physics, mathematics, architecture), living matter (philosophy, medicine, art), and spiritual matter (theology, astronomy). PMR hopes to dedicate a special issue to this topic. Submission deadline is March 31, 2003.

The journal also invites submissions for the next two conferences, which explore the topic of originality and/or dependence of literary genres and forms as well as art and architectural forms and media from one time period to the next. Deadline is March 31, 2003. For further information please contact:

The Society for Medieval Logic and Metaphysics (SMLM) is a network of scholars founded with the aim of fostering collaboration and research based on the recognition that:

- recovering the profound metaphysical insights of medieval thinkers for our own philosophical thought is highly desirable, and, despite the vast conceptual changes in the intervening period, is still possible; but
- this recovery is only possible if we carefully reflect on the logical framework in which those insights were articulated, given the paradigmatic differences between medieval and modern logical theories.

The Society, founded at the 2000 Dallas meeting of the ACPA, currently has over a hundred members on five continents. The Society’s web site <http://www.fordham.edu/gsas/phil/klima/SMLM/index.htm> is designed to serve the purpose of keeping each other up-to-date on our current projects, sharing recent results, discussing scholarly questions, and organizing meetings.

The Society’s new publication started in 2001, the Proceedings of the Society for Medieval Logic and Metaphysics, collects original materials presented at sessions sponsored by the Society. Vol. I (2001) of PSMLM is available online: <http://www.fordham.edu/gsas/phil/klima/SMLM/PSMLM1.pdf>. Vol. II (2002) will be appearing very shortly.

CALL FOR MONOGRAPHS

The Publications Committee of the Society has both a publishing arrangement with The Catholic University of America Press and funding available to subsidize the publication of significant scholarly works in medieval or Renaissance philosophy. The Committee especially seeks mature and distinctly philosophical treatments of texts, figures, periods, or problems. Although we wish to encourage young scholars, we will not consider unrevised doctoral dissertations. Since we are looking for philosophical monographs, we will not at the present time consider text editions or translations of Latin texts.
