

THE SOCIETY FOR MEDIEVAL AND RENAISSANCE PHILOSOPHY

NEWSLETTER

NUMBER 47, Fall 2003

From the Editor: In this, the 25th anniversary year of the Society for Medieval and Renaissance Philosophy, it seems a good time to reflect on who we are, what we've achieved, and where we should be headed in our next 25 years. To this end, the executive committee has commissioned the first survey of SMRP members, which you will be invited to complete online very soon upon receipt of an e-mail invitation from me at surveymonkey.com. The survey is very straightforward and should take only a few minutes of your time to complete. But the snapshot it will provide of our Society as it stands in 2003 will be most helpful in planning future events.

Since the survey is web-based, invitations will be sent only to members for whom I have a current e-mail address. If you receive a mailed copy of the newsletter, you may also participate by sending me an e-mail address or requesting a copy of the survey to complete and return by U.S. mail.

Survey results will be tabulated and presented to the executive committee at their annual meeting in Washington, D.C. in December. Of course, if you have additional comments and suggestions as to how we can better serve you, the executive would love to hear them (contact information is on our website: <http://www.lmu.edu/smrp/>). Remember – it's your Society!

Speaking of which, please remember to pay your 2004 dues using the form on the last page of this newsletter. Your dues help defray the cost of our operating expenses.*

Finally, thanks to those members who have alerted me to upcoming events and recent publications in medieval and Renaissance philosophy. Know that I am happy to announce here any news that would be of interest to our members. I try to collect what I can prior to the publication of each newsletter, but given the nature of the enterprise, there will always be errors of omission. Please help me to keep these to a minimum.

With my best wishes for a gentle end to the fall semester or quarter and a peaceful holiday season,

CALL FOR MONOGRAPHS

The Publications Committee of the Society has both a publishing arrangement with The Catholic University of America Press and funding available to subsidize the publication of significant scholarly works in medieval or Renaissance philosophy. The Committee especially seeks mature and distinctly philosophical treatments of texts, figures, periods, or problems. Although we wish to encourage young scholars, we will not consider unrevised doctoral dissertations. Since we are looking for philosophical monographs, we will not at the present time consider text editions or translations of Latin texts.
