

The Society for Medieval and Renaissance Philosophy

Newsletter

Number 65, Fall 2014

Editor's Note

Dear SMRP members:

Here is the 65th number of the Newsletter of the Society for Medieval and Renaissance Philosophy. In it you will find a wealth of bibliographical information, almost fourteen pages in all, which contain both those entries sent me by the membership and those from the relevant journals of this past year. I would especially like to thank Thérèse-Anne Druart, who make her latest bibliography of articles and books in Islamic philosophy available to me.

As for meetings, the Society will be gathering as usual at the annual American Philosophical Association-Eastern Division meeting. Please see the details enclosed (below), and do join us if you will be attending the APA-Eastern. In addition, I have also listed the meetings that the Society will sponsor at the Renaissance Society of America annual meeting which, this year, will take place in Berlin in late March.

Also, please note that the Society is co-sponsoring a roundtable at the International Congress of Medieval Studies at Kalamazoo in May 2015. The topic will be "Medieval Contributions to the Theory of Knowledge." The details will be posted on the Society's website as they are made available.

For all those who have not yet paid their dues to the Treasurer, I will once again remind you that dues must be paid on April 15th of each calendar year. You may send your check to the Secretary/Treasurer at the following address:
